Christmas Card Crafts

Do you feel guilty throwing away beautiful Christmas cards each year? Below is a list from Good Housekeeping of great ways to reuse your cards.

1. Gift Tags: Use a tag-shaped punch or free cut for a beautiful gift tag.
2. Baskets: Pre-punch needle holes for a blanket-stitched basket for your trinkets.
3. Garland: Use punched card discs to make a colorful garland for your tree or mantel.
4. Luminary: Turn four similar-colored and sized cards into a candle luminary (battery-operated)
5. Photo mat: Cut out well wishes (birthday and wedding cards work too) to create a photo mat.
6. Centerpiece: Use classic mason jars with Christmas cards inside, topped with ribbon, and fabric.
7. Postcards: Snip off the back half of the used card and mail away! Or, save the fronts and donate to a local school or day card for the children to use to make their own cards or send to soldiers or the elderly.
8. Notepads: Use the sturdy card as the case, and scrap paper on the inside, to make a handy pad.

Recipe Corner

Best Bruschetta

Ingredients:

- 1 Bruschetta Cheeseball Mix
- 2 cups diced tomatoes
- 2 Tbs minced onion
- 1 Tbs balsamic vinegar
- 2 Tbs fresh basil (or 1/2 tsp dry basil)
- 8 oz cream cheese
- 1 loaf French bread

Directions:

Toss diced tomatoes (remove seeds) with basil, onions and balsamic vinegar. Combine Bruschetta Cheeseball & Appetizer Mix and Tomato & Herbs Topping Mix with cream cheese. Spread over toasted French bread slices. Top with tomato mixture. Drizzle with olive oil and sprinkle with shredded asiago or parmesan cheese.
