Yankee Candle Changes

As some of you may have heard, Yankee Candle was purchased by another candle company this past year. This change in ownership brings changes to retailers like us. First, and most disappointing, is that we are no longer able to accept or offer Yankee Candle coupons. This includes the coupons that are received via email or in the mail from Yankee. They will only be able to be redeemed in a Yankee Candle Store or on their website. Also, because of the changes with the tariffs, the jar candles will see a slight increase in price. Even though the candles are made in the USA, some of the materials come from overseas.

In an attempt to stay competitive, we will be reinstating the Yankee Candle Club. For every 5 large jars purchased, you'll get a 6 one free!

We will also offer an occasional promotion when we can, such as 2 for $40 large jars. We are certainly disappointed in Yankee's decision to favor the large retailers, but hope you'll still come to us for your candle needs. We'll do our best to offer a wide selection of fragrances and accessories.
