Current Store Closure

In March we decided to close our store, which was shortly followed by the mandated non-essential business closure. While this was a difficult decision for us, we know that it is best to keep everyone safe. That being said, we still have some daily and weekly tasks that we need to perform at the store. Because of that, we are able to offer a few shopping options. We started a new online shopping website at <https://harpers-cabin-creations-llc.myshopify.com/> or go to our regular website www.cabincreationswi.com and follow the link there. We are adding new items to the website each week, but Facebook is still the best place to see a larger variety of items. We can offer shipping of many items, as well as curbside pick up on select times, holds in store, or free delivery within the Phillips area. We realize that many of you are struggling just as we are, and we'd never ask you to spend beyond your means. But, if you can, we'd love your support during these difficult times. See the back side for other ideas on how you can support small businesses without spending money.

Stories at the Store

If you have a young one at home, or if you just like children's books, we invite you to watch our videos, Stories at the Store. A few times a week we are recording the reading of a children's book available at Cabin Creations. Beyond reading the book, we will discuss different topics that coincide with the book, such as genres, forest animal facts, and more. It is meant to serve as a safe break for parents and caregivers to take a few minutes to yourself while the kids are occupied. The videos are posted on our YouTube channel. You can search Cabin Creations or Stories at the Store. Please subscribe to our page if you have time!
