Tips on Seasonal Storage

ORGANIZE YOUR DECOR

Keeping seasonal decor organized can be a challenge. Here are a few simple steps to help. Start with uniform plastic storage containers. Solid colors give a cleaner look, while clear can help you see the contents. The uniformity will make stacking easier. Use a dry erase marker to write on the container, or tape a piece of paper to it and write more specific contents. Organize totes by holiday, or if you have many, by either category or even by room it goes in. At the end of each season, if there are items that didn't make it out of the bin, that are damaged, or simply no longer give you joy, donate or recycle them. If you don't have a lot of storage space, consider under bed or hanging ceiling shelves. Happy organizing!

Wisconsin Musky Expo

SEE US IN WAUSAU MARCH 18-20

It seems like an odd combination, but yes, Cabin Creations is at the Wisconsin Musky Expo in Wausau! Why, you ask? Well, a few reasons. One is that Elk River Rods and Ross's Sports Center are sponsors of the event and very well known in this group, which means many of them are visiting Phillips. In addition, a lot of the attendees are women and children, and some times they just need a little distraction from the thousands of rods, reels and lures! If you are in that area and would like us to bring something for you to pick up from us, just let us know. We are happy to be back at this event to see some familiar faces and meet some new ones as well!
